Natalia Dyomin informs that the European open forum on a science has taken place from June, 21 till June, 26th in Copenhagen. The festival motto: «a Science creating bridges» (Science building bridges). «The future of Europe is a science», — the main thesis of performance of the president of Eurocommission José Manuelja Barroso was such. Participants of a forum have met these words an applause. «Europe, without doubts, remains the world leader of a science and keeps all possibilities for innovations», — has noted Barroso.
